

Heavenly Father, forgive me for not telling You that I love and appreciate You. Without You I am nothing.

You gave the spark that created life in my mother's womb. You were there for my first breath and cry.

I am sustained all my days by Your mercy. All my love is due You. Without You, I could not have known love.

Accept my feeble offer of love. I have nothing to give that you have not given me. All my love and praise I give.
